

Scott Neumann and Osage County

Infectious grooves, soaring melodies and inspired interplay from four critically acclaimed New York City musicians. Osage County's musical soundscape is comprised of the peerless improvisations of David Berkman (Fender Rhodes, Wurlitzer and Organ) and Sam Newsome (Soprano Saxophone). With the groovy, intellectual support of Don Falzone (Fender Electric Bass) and Scott Neumann (Drums), the result is a joyous and powerful musical statement.
